

Name: _____

Use this list of helping phrases to fill up the missing parts in the model composition.

Paragraph 1 & 2

own use model compo

the exciting day I had in school my mind wondered back to the occasion it was a Monday afternoon the opportunity to help others admire its unique architecture the wonderful aroma of freshly-cooked waffles wafted over ready to tuck into my delicious breakfast had just received my examination results merrily waltzed down the familiar pathway the cool air was rejuvenating making my stomach rumble almost hopping with excitement an article about an act of kindness caught my eye

Name: _____

Paragraph 3, 4 & 5gently took hold of his arm and whispered heard a soft moan beside me felt a surge of compassion felt very good about what I had done I pondered limping and had a severe abrasion on his knee declared with a bright smile on his face gasped and immediately grabbed his walking stick a receptionist helped him into a wheelchair an elderly man on the ground surprised and smiled warmly thought for a while, uncertain turned his attention towards

Name: _____

Paragraphs 6 & 7 (page 2)to help with their physical therapy beamed when he saw me all about my encounter with the old man encourage my spirit of volunteerism set about making myself useful exchanged my student pass for a volunteer badge supposed to do light work a volunteer programme that encouraged seeing my genuine enthusiasm happily agreed to let me sign up pleasantly surprised to see the old man whom I had helped

Name: _____

Paragraphs 7 (page 3), 8 & 9exhausted after a whole afternoon of running around sadly bade the staff and patients farewell familiar voice hauled me out of my reverie tugged at my heartstrings helping others was as much a blessing to me as it was to them looked forward to the next opportunity began entrusting me with greater responsibilities quickly finished my breakfast and got ready had to cease my volunteer work it would brighten my day would never forget that wonderful experience at the Silver Care Hospital